

ROOTS TO WINGS

Roots to Wings is a chain of Pre-schools designed to cater to the pre-schooling needs of the children from two to five years. Roots to Wings follows a simple belief of progressing from simple to complex, concrete to abstract and macro to micro. Our program is grounded on scientific principles based on Child Development. These principles are embodied in the curriculum design and general learning environment. The instructional delivery is organised and responsive to the interactions with adults where opportunities are provided for children to acquire skills and learn concepts involving problem solving, decision-making, questioning, evaluating and discovering.

The Whole School Development Models

Our 'Eclectic Approach' and 'Seven Petal Approach' towards curriculum methodology aim at developing various skills of the child, recognising the variant needs and mapping them sequentially at different ages to foster holistic development.

VISION

To enable, energise and enhance childhood by fostering growth of mind, body and spirit, which will lead them to become lifelong learners.
